

Lapeer County Medical Care Facility

“Where caring makes a difference”

Do you want to volunteer?

Volunteer applications are available from the receptionist Monday through Friday from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm. When completing an application, please provide information for a background check, including your driver’s license or state identification along with your social security card. Once the background check has returned, volunteer orientation can take place. Orientations are offered every other month at a scheduled day and time. Volunteer service for court appointed community service is not accepted.
